

Du Bois

U.S. sociology

W.E.B. DU BOIS

A faded, grayscale portrait of W.E.B. Du Bois is visible in the background of the slide. He is an African American man with a beard and mustache, wearing a suit and a bow tie. The portrait is centered and takes up most of the background.

- Along with the Chicago School and Structural Functionalists, Du Bois was one of the foundational and formative theorists in shaping U.S. sociology to what it is today.
- He was the first African-American to earn a Ph.D. at Harvard; he was a scholar, crusader, and advocate of Pan-Africanism.
