

Harold BLUMER

- "Symbolic Interactionism" coined by Herbert Blumer.
- Believed that the creation of reality is a continuous process, where humans act on the basis of meaning.
- A great deal of human group life is hidden from immediate notice, so study what occurs naturally in the everyday existence of people.

