

MAPREDUCE

- MapReduce is a programming model for processing and generating big data sets with a parallel, distributed algorithm on a cluster.
- Take a look at the video on the next slide that explains how MapReduce works for Hadoop, software utilities that facilitate using a network of many computers to solve problems involving massive amounts of data and computation.

MapReduce

Visit PragProg.com/screenscasts

Visit FlagBlog.com/screenshots

