

Today, we're going to learn about social network analysis.

Social networks are often considered the fundamental social structure (i.e., relations between people, places, or things).

They're difficult to see and even harder to empirically capture, but they're also the most revealing of social processes.

Be sure to first look over the assigned readings for this week before going through this week's material.

