

MAX WEBER

- German sociologist, known for the “interpretive” approach in sociology.
- Strongly influenced by Marx’s ideas of socialism and active politics.
- Economics was the primary source of solving social problems.
- Strongly influenced by German Historicism.

Max Weber's Most Famous Works

Sociology of Religion (1920)