

ERVING GOFFMAN

An Essay on the Organization of Experience

FRAME ANALYSIS

With a New Foreword by Bennett Berger

STIGMA

NOTES ON THE
■
MANAGEMENT
■
OF SPOILED
■
IDENTITY

by ERVING GOFFMAN

ERVING GOFFMAN

THE PRESENTATION OF SELF IN EVERYDAY LIFE

ASYLUMS

ESSAYS ON THE
SOCIAL SITUATION OF
MENTAL PATIENTS
AND OTHER INMATES

ERVING GOFFMAN

Erving GOFFMAN

- Canadian-American Sociology (b.1922 - 1982).
- Studied lots of different things, e.g., "total institutions," prisons, mental hospitals, etc.
- Individual determines how the self should be presented in social situations.
- Society is viewed as a stage, and humans are actors performing for audiences.

