

Symbolic Interactionism

George Herbert Mead

Herbert Blumer

Symbolic Interactionism

George Herbert Mead

Herbert Blumer

Symbolic Interactionism

George Herbert Mead

Symbolic Interactionism

- Symbols include words, gestures, and communicating through language.
- Social actions are symbolic because they happen in the mind before they occur in reality.
- These meanings are modified through an interpretative process used by the person in dealing with the things they encounter.

