

Technology

Means by which organizations accomplish work or render inputs into outputs

Environment

The physical, technological, cultural, and social context in which an organization is embedded

