

Persona

- The different personality 'masks' we wear in different situations, for different people.
- The way we behave with our family during the holidays is different to how we would behave with prisoners if we worked as a prison warden.
- This is what makes you different to others.

Performance

