

§ NVREMBERGA §

S. Omnis.

S. Sebaldus.

- Cities capitalism

- Cities regional economies

WHY THE NATION-STATE?

CITIES

- Cities are a product of capitalism, because of the need to have the various parts of the system in close proximity (e.g., production, distribution, sale, trade).
- Cities are regional economies, often circled by agricultural belts that provide the food needed to sustain urban populations.

WHY THE NATION-STATE? COERCION

