

HETEROGENEITY

INTERSECTIONALITY

● intermarriage

can't marry

Inuit

none

non-Inuit

HETEROGENEITY, INEQUALITY, AND INTERSECTIONALITY

- Think intermarriage between people of the same ethnicity, religion, educational background, and profession, or even how white flight has segregated communities.
- (As Blau puts it, you can't marry an Inuit if there are none in your community.)
- In fact, Blau goes as far as to insist these constraints exert a "dominant" influence, due to three theorems.

MACROSOCIOLOGICAL THEORY OF STRUCTURE

