

WITTINGSTEIN

A faded, grayscale portrait of Ludwig Wittgenstein serves as the background for the slide. He is shown from the chest up, wearing a dark suit jacket, a white shirt, and a dark tie. His face is the central focus, with his eyes looking slightly to the right and a serious expression. The lighting is soft, highlighting his features against a dark background.

- Meaning is dependent on reality and language is concerned with representation.
- Picture Theory: The underlying logical structure of sentences must exactly mirror the structure of the world.
- Sentences are (actual) pictures of possible states of affairs.
