WHAT IS NLP?

- NLP stands for Natural Language Processing: the application of computational techniques to the analysis and synthesis of natural language and speech.

- It's the use of different techniques from computer science to understand and manipulate human language and speech.

- Our focus here is on analyzing text data. This can be anything: from speeches, conversations, online reviews, tweets, written documents, etc.

- Our focus here is on analyzing text data. This can be analyzing: from speeches, conversations, online reviews, tweets, written documents, etc.

language and speech.